

Do not change or weaken Wisconsin's "No Call" law. I am 66 years old and these calls are a serious disruption to me. They take up space on my answering machine and upset me when they do not leave a message. I live alone as do many of my friends. I worry that someone may have been stricken ill and could not leave a message. When I need service from a bank, I will call them. Leave well enough alone.